Don't be an I.D.iot

We weren't born yesterday

The use of a fake and/or altered ID breaches legislation by the person in possession of the ID and by other persons who assist them, and can result in the person(s) being reported or arrested.

Police and Security Staff will focus on the following:

- Security staff will be trained to identify fake and altered ID.
- Police will be conducting spot checks inside licenced premises.
- Persons who are in possession of stolen ID may be charged with an offence.
- Persons who have altered or damaged a driver's licence or permit may be charged with an offence.
- People who lend their driver's licence or learner's permit to another to use as ID may be charged with an offence.
- People who are requested to produce ID by an authorised person and who produce false ID may be charged with an offence.
- Fake ID may be seized and investigated by police.

The following current IDs are accepted in licenced premises:

- Driver's Licence
- Learner's Permit
- Proof of Age Card
- Passport
- Keypass Card
